

PATAGONIA

Greetings from Tipiliuke lodge's staff!

Tipiliuke lodge, 100 years in Patagonia

Experience a pioneer Patagonian ranch in the foothills of the Andes with excellent accommodations and service. Combine world-class fly fishing, horseback riding, trekking, birding, polo for beginners, golf and photo workshop as many other activities in our 48.000 acres property.

PRESS RELEASE

Tipiliuke lodge was voted by Taschen's prestigious guide book as one of the top boutique hotels in the world. Amongst 72 properties, Tachen's Favourite Hotels book, selected only two destinations in South America. Whether you prefer a secluded rural retreat or the pulsing centre of the urban experience all the establishments mentioned share a personality, atmosphere, sophistication and a great location.

The wellknown U.S. outdoor company J.L.Powell choose Tipiliuke for its Autumn 2011 catalog..." The landscape is breathtaking, of course, the food phenomenal and the adventure that comes from such a perfect location is unyielding. (...) Places like Tipiliuke are not easy to find, but when you do, you know that you 'll be right back again and again"...

Tipiliuke's manager, Kevin Tiemersma, was in the cover of Gray's Sporting Journal magazine, (July 2011) ! Georg Miciu, Patagonian painter, portrayed Tipiliuke's manager fishing at the world known Chimehuín river.

* photo: Isafas Miciu