

Try Patagonia, combining one of the worlds Mecca of fly-fishing with a Nicklaus' golf course

Fly fishing & Golf for beginners

Try Patagonia, combining one of the worlds Mecca of fly-fishing with a Nicklaus' golf course

Tipiliuke lodge has catered this personalized program to really get the best out of it with no pressure, just fun!

Fly fish the emblematic Chimehuín river with bilingual guide in a 48.000 acres traditional ranch and take golf classes at the nearby Chapelco Golf course with the Andes as the perfect backdrop.

Patagonian Characters

Kevin Tiemersma, more than a guide

After seven years in Tierra del Fuego managing Kau Tapen Lodge, and now in his thirteenth year leading the team at Tipiliuke Lodge, Kevin Tiemersma has evolved into the rarest variety of fly fishing guide. He consistently puts his clients in the presence of good fish; he is generous with his wealth of skills and knowledge; and his personable nature enriches the fishing experience. Kevin's expertise in Patagonian waters is matched only by his passion for helping others pursue legendary trout with the Art of the Fly.

(Memo Stephens, The Patagonia Journal)

Tipiliuke lodge at Pleasanton Fly fishing show | FEB 10'

Last February, Kevin and Mary Jo Tiemersma, the managers of Tipiliuke lodge, together with Quemquemtreu lodge have participated at Pleasanton Fly fishing show (U.S.). We introduced "Patagonian Fly fishing" at the show's Destination Theatre.

